

LEGISLATIVE UPDATE JULY 2021

As of July 31

The General Assembly is still in summer recess. The Senate is scheduled to reconvene on Monday, September 20, and the House on Monday, September 27.

As a result, there was little activity relevant to our interests.

Pennsylvania House

House Bill 1718. This legislation will increase penalties for unlicensed carry of a firearm. Referred to JUDICIARY, July 8, 2021 [House].

House Bill 1751. This legislation would require all individuals to provide an official form of photographic identification with every purchase of firearm ammunition in the Commonwealth. It would reinforce current law to ensure that firearm ammunition is not sold to underage children without infringing on any individual's Second Amendment rights.
Referred to JUDICIARY, July 30, 2021 [House].

One more month and the action will pick up. In the meantime--a reminder...
